sayvak ka-o niktee ho-ay dikhaavai

Awsw mhlw 5] (403-14)	aasaa mehlaa 5.	Aasaa, Fifth Mehl:
Apnw svk kI Awp rwK Awp nwm jpwv]	apunay sayvak kee aapay raakhai aapay naam japaavai.	He Himself preserves His servants; He causes them to chant His Name.
jh jh kwj ikriq svk kI qhw qhw aiT Dwv]1]	jah jah kaaj kirat sayvak kee tahaa tahaa uth Dhaavai. ||1||	Wherever the business and affairs of His servants are, there the Lord hurries to be. ||1|| svk kau inkitI hie idKwv]	sayvak ka-o niktee ho-ay dikhaavai.	The Lord appears near at hand to His servant.
jo jo kihai Twkur pih svk qqkwl hie Awv]1] rhwau]	jo jo kahai thaakur peh sayvak tatkaal ho-ay aavai. ||1|| rahaa-o.	Whatever the servant asks of his Lord and Master, immediately comes to pass. ||1||Pause||
iqsu svk kau hau bilhwrI jo Apnw pB Bwv]	tis sayvak kai ha-o balihaaree jo apnay parabh bhaavai.	I am a sacrifice to that servant, who is pleasing to his God.
iqs kI sie sxI mnu hirAw iqsu nwnk prsix Awv]2]7]129]	tis kee so-ay sunee man hari-aa tis naanak parsan aavai. ||2||7||129||	Hearing of his glory, the mind is rejuvenated; Nanak comes to touch his feet. ||2||7||129||