

baabaa mai karamheen koorhi-aar

rwgu mwrUmhl w 1 Gru1 capdy] (989-5)	mehlaa 1 ghar 1 cha-upday	Raag Maaroo, First Mehl, First House, Chau-Padas:
ipChurwql sdVw nmmuKsm kw Ijh]	pichhahu raatee sad-rhaa naam khasam kaa layhi.	Those who receive the call in the last hours of the night, chant the Name of their Lord and Master.
Kmy CqRsrwiecyidsin rQ plVy]	khaymay chhatar saraa-ichay disan rath peerhay.	Tents, canopies, pavilions and carriages are prepared and made ready for them.
ij nl qrw nmmu iDAwieAw iqn kau sid iml y]1]	jinee tayraa naam Dhi-aa-i-aa tin ka-o sad milay. 1	You send out the call, Lord, to those who meditate on Your Name. 1
bulw ml krmhlx klVAwr]	baabaa mai karamheen koorhi-aar.	Father, I am unfortunate, a fraud.
nmmun pwieAw qrw ADw Brim BU w mnumrw]1] rhwau]	naam na paa-i-aa tayraa anDhaa bharam bhoolaa man mayraa. 1 rahaa-o.	I have not found Your Name; my mind is blind and deluded by doubt. 1 Pause swd klqy dK prPWy plrib il Ky mwie]	saad keetay dukh parfurhay poorab likhay maa-ay.	I have enjoyed the tastes, and now my pains have come to fruition; such is my pre-ordained destiny, O my mother.
sK QMy dK Agl y dK y dK ivhwie]2]	sukh thorhay dukh aglay dookhay dookh vihaa-ay. 2	Now my joys are few, and my pains are many. In utter agony, I pass my life. 2 ivCiVAw kw ikAw vICWY imil Aw kw ikAw myl u]	vichhurhi-aa kaa ki-aa veechhurhai mili-aa kaa ki-aa mayl.	What separation could be worse than separation from the Lord? For those who are united with Him, what other union can there be?
swihbu so swl whIAI ij in kir djKAw KJ u]3]	saahib so salaah-ai jin kar daykhi-aa khayl. 3	Praise the Lord and Master, who, having created this play, beholds it. 3
sJl gl myl wVw iein qin klqy Bg]	sanjogee maylaavarhaa in tan keetay bhog.	By good destiny, this union comes about; this body enjoys its pleasures.
ivj gl imil ivCWynwnk BI sJl gl]4]1]	vijogee mil vichhurhay naanak bhee sanjog. 4 1	Those who have lost their destiny, suffer separation from this union. O Nanak, they may still be united once again! 4 1