

tarisnaa bujhai har kai naam

Dnwsrl mhl w 5 ] (682-19)	Dhanaasree mehlāa 5.	Dhanaasaree, Fifth Mehl:
iqṣnw bWYhir kYnwim ]	tarisnaa bujhai har kai naam.	Desire is quenched, through the Lord's Name.
mhw sṭKuhwYgur bcnl pB isau l wgy pṭrn iDAwru ]1] rhwau ]	mahaa santokh hovai gur bachnee parabh si-o laagai pooran Dhi-aan.   1   rahaa-o.	Great peace and contentment come through the Guru's Word, and one's meditation is perfectly focused upon God.   1  Pause
mhw kl d bWih mwieAw kykir ikrpw myrdln dieAwl ]	mahaa kalol bujheh maa-i-aa kay kar kirpaa mayray deen da-i-aal.	Please shower Your Mercy upon me, and permit me to ignore the great enticements of Maya, O Lord, Merciful to the meek.
Apwx nwmudjh j ip j lvw pṭrn hie dws kl Gwl ]1]	apnaa naam deh jap jeevaa pooran ho-ay daas kee ghaal.   1	Give me Your Name - chanting it, I live; please bring the efforts of Your slave to fruition.   1
srb mnwQ rwj sK rs sd KṣlAw klrqnuj ip nwm ]	sarab manorath raaj sookh ras sad khusee-aa keertan jap naam.	All desires, power, pleasure, joy and lasting bliss, are found by chanting the Naam, the Name of the Lord, and singing the Kirtan of His Praises.
ij s kYkrim il iKAw Dir krqY nwnk j n kypṭrn kwm ]2]20]51]	jis kai karam likhi-aa Dhur kartai naanak jan kay pooran kaam.   2  20  51	That humble servant of the Lord, who has such karma pre- ordained by the Creator Lord, O Nanak - his efforts are brought to perfect fruition.   2  20  51