

har darsan dayh har aas tumaaree

gaVI gAwrI mhl 4] (164-15)	ga-or hee gu-aarayree mehlaa 4.	Gauree Gwaarayree, Fourth Mehl:
BIKk pliq BIK pB pie]	b heek h ak pareet b heek h parab h paa-ay.	The beggar loves to receive charity from the wealthy landlord.
BK pliq hv An Kwie]	b hook h ay pareet h ovai ann k haa-ay.	The hungry person loves to eat food.
grisK pliq gr imil AaGwie]1]	gursik h pareet gur mil aag h aa-ay. 1	The GurSikh loves to find satisfaction by meeting the Guru. 1 hir drsn dh hir Aas qmwrI]	har da rsan day h har aas t umaaree.	O Lord, grant me the Blessed Vision of Your Darshan; I place my hopes in You, Lord.
kir ikrpw lc pir hmwrI]1] rhwa]	kar kirpaa loch poor hamaaree. 1 rahaa-o.	Shower me with Your Mercy, and fulfill my longing. 1 Pause
ckvl pliq srj miK lwg]	chakvee pareet sooraj muk h laagai.	The song-bird loves the sun shining in her face.
iml ipAwr SB dK iqAwg]	milai pi-aaray sab h du k h ti-aagai.	Meeting her Beloved, all her pains are left behind.
grisK pliq gr miK lwg]2]	gursik h pareet guroo muk h laagai. 2	The GurSikh loves to gaze upon the Face of the Guru. 2
bCr pliq Klr miK Kwie]	bach h ray pareet k heer muk h k haa-ay.	The calf loves to suck its mother's milk;
ihrd ibgs dK mwie]	hirdai bigsai day k hai maa-ay.	its heart blossoms forth upon seeing its mother.
grisK pliq gr miK lwie]3]	gursik h pareet guroo muk h laa-ay. 3	The GurSikh loves to gaze upon the Face of the Guru. 3
hr SB pliq mwieAw mh kwcw]	hor sab h pareet maa-i-aa moh kaachaa.	All other loves and emotional attachment to Maya are false.
ibnis jwie krw kc pwcw]	binas jaa-ay kooraa kach paachaa.	They shall pass away, like false and transitory decorations.
j n nwnk pliq iqpiq gr swcw]4]4]42]	jan naanak pareet taripa t gur saachaa. 4 4 42	Servant Nanak is fulfilled, through the Love of the True Guru. 4 4 42