

bhai ka-o bha-o parhi-aa simraṭ har naam

Bṽraumhl w 5] (1151-7)	bḥairo mehlāa 5.	Bhairao, Fifth Mehl:
BṽkauBaupiVAw ismrq hir nm]	bḥai ka-o bha -o parhi -aa simraṭ har naam.	Fear itself becomes afraid, when the mortal remembers the Lord's Name in meditation.
sgl ibAwid imtl iqḥugx kl dws kyḥeypln kwm]1] rhwau]	sagal bi-aa Dh mitee ṭarihu guṅ kee daas kay ho-ay pooran kaam. 1 rahaa-o.	All the diseases of the three gunas - the three qualities - are cured, and tasks of the Lord's slaves are perfectly accomplished. 1 Pause hir kyl k sdw gx gwvih iqn kauimil Aw pln Dwm]	har kay lok sadaa guṅ gaavahi ṭin ka-o mili-aa pooran Dha am.	The people of the Lord always sing His Glorious Praises; they attain His Perfect Mansion.
j n kw drsbwCYidn rwql hie pnlq Drm rwie j w]1]	jan kaa daras baa ^N chhai din raatee ho-ay puneet Dh aram raa-ay jaam. 1	Even the Righteous Judge of Dharma and the Messenger of Death yearn, day and night, to be sanctified by the Blessed Vision of the Lord's humble servant. 1 kwm kD I B md inḥw swDsllg imitAw AiBmw]	kaam kro Dh lobh maḍ nindaa saa Dhs ang miti-aa abh imaan.	Sexual desire, anger, intoxication, egotism, slander and egotistical pride are eradicated in the Saadh Sangat, the Company of the Holy.
Aṽsystḥ Bṽtih vfBwgl nwnk iqn kṽsd kirbwn]2]39]52]	aisay sant bḥ ayteh vad bḥ aagee naanak ṭin kai sad kurbaan. 2 39 52	By great good fortune, such Saints are met. Nanak is forever a sacrifice to them. 2 39 52